ORDER

The only grievance of the petitioner is that the first respondent who entertained the appeal as early as in the year 1999, has not disposed of the same so far, except calling for the records by his proceedings No.CCLA's Ref.No.L3/603/99, Dated:11.3.2002. It is alleged that the appeal is still pending for want of records.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Revenue, it is appropriate to direct the first respondent to dispose of the appeal expeditiously.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of directing the first respondent to consider and dispose of the appeal preferred by the petitioner within a period of four (4) months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and communicate the same to the petitioner. No costs.
